TABLE ROCK KIWANIS TABLE TALK

October 26, 2017

HOT FLASH

The numbers at last week's meeting were a bit low but the quality of members attending was very high. Passionate Paul Robbins again kicked off the meeting with the kickees being, Frank Marksman, Dana Collins, Jan Bettenburg, Pam Bock, Joe Guerra, Jerry MacLeod and our guest speaker, Jennifer Boardman.

It was time for THE CAN last week and some of you responded. We only have 42 days left to fill the CAN so Joe cannot lift it. Do your part – feed it.

HOWL-O-WEEN - The Medford Parks need our help with this project. If you come about 3:30 on Saturday (Oct. 28) you can enjoy pizza and soft drinks and get your assignments. They need help with set up, monitoring the jump houses, assisting with the Haunted House, and organizing the games that include a cake walk, Frank-n-booger, lollipop pull, prize wheel, and pumpkin toss. With the munchkins dressed up as all kinds of critters this is a fun event.

KIWANIS ONE-DAY: The Howl-O-Ween project is our Kiwanis One-Day project so please come and help. We will be joining Kiwanis clubs across the nation doing a project on the same day.

SEE'S CANDY SALES: You can start to pre-sale now. Joan Isaacs informs me that she got the jump on everybody by selling 13 boxes already. Come on, don't let her get ahead of you. SELL, SELL, SELL. We will start selling out of our trailer the day after Thanksgiving. Please set aside some time to monitor the trailer. When you are not inundated with customers you can read or work or relax and omphalasketsis. (Look it up.)

TIP OF THE WEEK

Advice to Parents: Unless you set aside some time for regular relaxation, you won't be able to efficiently care for your family. Plan a minimum of an hour and a half every 15 years.

THE SUPER POT

The super POT was dormant last week. It will be resurrected today.

FRUSTRATION IS TRYING TO FIND OUR GLASSES WITHOUT OUR GLASSES.

HAPPY BUCKS

- Jan Bettenburg can hardly wait. Her daughter and new grandson are coming to visit.
- Joe Guerra spent last week camping with his son on the back side of Mt. Shasta while his son chased the elusive deer and Joe cooked and bottle washed.
- Dana Collins enjoyed a visit from his son and daughter-in-law from Portland.
- Pam Bock had a great weekend camping at Union Creek. The weather was gorgeous.
- Jerry MacLeod attended a community meeting regarding replacing the “Leathers” playground in Bear Creek Park. He was appointed one of the volunteer coordinators.
- Frank Marksman assembled a softball team and played in a tournament last week. Had a great time.

WORDS FROM KIDS

HOW WOULD YOU MAKE A MARRIAGE WORK? Tell your wife that she looks pretty, even if she looks like a dump truck. (Ricky, age 9)

INTERCLUBS

Jerry and Sandy MacLeod attended a special surf and turf dinner sponsored by the Roseburg Kiwanis club. This was part of a meeting so we acquired an interclub in the process. Nick Stambaugh, past Table Rock president was one of the organizers of this function.

SPIRITUAL AIMS

A FAMILY RESEMBLANCE

Be a person whose life is marked by truth, integrity, and passion.

Many people share a family resemblance with their parents. It might be curly hair, or a toothy grin. Maybe it is the way you walk or a distinctive laugh. When people see a resemblance of this type, they know what family you belong to.

If you want people to know that you belong to God, your "family resemblance" should be godliness. That trait might look like this in your life:

- * Knowing the truth – which comes from studying God's Word;
- * Acting with integrity – which comes from doing God's Word; and
- * Living with passion – which comes from sharing God's Word.

If you have these characteristics in your life, people will easily see the family resemblance between you and your heavenly Father.

WHEN YOU GET TO YOUR WIT'S END, YOU'LL FIND GOD LIVES THERE.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

“Be careful about reading health books. You may die of a misprint. (Mark Twain)

PROGRAM

LAST WEEK: Jennifer Boardman, Recreation Supervisor for the Medford Parks spoke to us about upcoming activities, including the Howl-O-Ween event on Saturday and the Winter Lights festival and Breakfast with Santa activities on Dec. 2. She also talked about the Daddy/Daughter Dance and the Mother/Son Super Hero Dance next year. We have helped with all of these projects in the past and they really could use our help again.

THIS WEEK: Central Point police officer Muñoz and Mattis the drug dog will be here. We will also have a visit from the Rogue Valley Mobile Pac requesting help with their meal program on November 18.

NEXT WEEK: TBA

Oct: Harry Gerhard and Jaqui Robbins
Nov: Jan Bettenburg and Paul Robbins
Dec: Frank Marksman and Pam Bock
Jan: Joan Isaacs and Dana Collins

FHOOD FOR THOUGHT

Why do we sing “Take me out to the ball game” when we are already there?

A few years ago, while on the freeway in Los Angeles, an officer was behind a pack of cars. The last driver was on the phone and drifting all over the road.

This did not escape the attention of the California Highway patrol officer, who snuck up behind her and said over his loudspeaker, “If you can’t stay in your lane while on the phone, pull over until the call is completed.”

Immediately, eight cars pulled over.

QUESTION OF THE MOMENT

Either you over-estimated the size of the White House or over-estimated how much a gallon of paint will cover. About everybody over-estimated how many gallons of paint will cover the exterior of the White House. The answer is 560 gallons. Joe Guerra had the right idea with a guess of 490 gallons and discovered some super glue in the MYSTERY BAG OF STUFF. Today’s question is dealing with a different type of gallon.
